Dear President Book:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met April 27-28 in Chicago and voted 19-0, with three members abstaining, that both the undergraduate and graduate programs in the School of Communications at Elon University receive reaccreditation. Paul Parsons, dean of the School of Communications, and Don Grady, associate dean of the School of Communications, attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the recommendations for reaccreditation made by the Accrediting Committee and the site team. The next visit for the School of Communications will be during the 2023-2024 academic year.

Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for continued success for the School of Communications at Elon University, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,

Peter Bhatia
ACEJMC President
