Dear President Leath:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met May 6-7 in Chicago and voted 21-0 that the undergraduate program in the Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication at Iowa State University receive reaccreditation. Michael Bugeja, director of the School of Journalism and Communication, Joel Geske, associate director, Alyssa Rutt, program coordinator, Daniela Dimitrova, director of graduate education, and Michael Dahlstrom, associate professor, attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the recommendations for reaccreditation made by the Accrediting Committee and the site team. The next visit for the undergraduate program in the School of Journalism and Communication will be during the 2021-2022 academic year.

Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for continued success for the undergraduate program in the Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication at Iowa State University, its students, faculty and the other professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,

Doug Anderson
ACEJMC Vice President
