Dear Chancellor Syverud:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met May 6-7 in Chicago and voted 21-0 that the undergraduate and graduate programs in the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University receive reaccreditation. Lorraine Branham, dean of the School of Public Communications, and Hubert Brown, associate dean for research, creativity, international initiatives and diversity, attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the recommendations for reaccreditation made by the Accrediting Committee and the site team. The next visit for the undergraduate and graduate programs in the School of Public Communications will be during the 2021-2022 academic year.

The Council discussed the non-compliance with Standard 9: Assessment of Learning Outcomes in both programs.

Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for continued success for the undergraduate and graduate programs in the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, its students, faculty and the other professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,

Doug Anderson
ACEJMC Vice President
