

Accrediting Council

On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 7, 2020

Richard B. Myers, President
Kansas State University
110 Anderson Hall
919 Mid-Campus Dr., North
Manhattan, KS 66506

Dear President Myers:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met April 25 and voted 20-0, with two members recusing, that the undergraduate program in the A.Q. Miller School of Journalism and Mass Communications at Kansas State University receive reaccreditation. Steve Smethers, interim director of the A.Q. Miller School of Journalism and Mass Communications, attended the meeting, which was held via video/audio conferencing because of the pandemic.

The Council concurred with the recommendations for reaccreditation made by the Accrediting Committee and the site team.

We will be in touch with the director about the next visit for the school.

Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for continued success for the A.Q. Miller School of Journalism and Mass Communications at Kansas State University, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,

Peter Bhatia
ACEJMC President
