

Accrediting Council

On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 9, 2023

Rodney K. Rogers, President
Bowling Green State University

Dear President Rogers:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met April 28 in Chicago and voted 18-1 that the Journalism and Public Relations Program at Bowling Green State University receive provisional reaccreditation. Sean Williams, associate teaching professor, attended the meeting.

Council members discussed the noncompliances on Standard 4 (Diversity and Inclusiveness) and Standard 7 (Resources, Facilities and Equipment). The Council concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for provisional reaccreditation.

Our policies state that a unit may receive provisional accreditation when the Council has found weaknesses that can be corrected within two years. We will be in touch with the director to schedule a two-person revisit team. Revisits usually take place two years after the initial visit. During the revisit, the Department of Journalism will be reviewed for improvement in the areas identified as deficiencies in the site team report, including demonstrating a higher priority in diversity efforts, enriching the curricular content delivered to students., and providing faculty resources sufficient to deliver the curriculum.

Council procedures require that I tell you of your right to appeal this decision. You must notify the ACEJMC office within 30 days of receipt of this letter if you wish to make an appeal.

Grounds for appeal of a decision to award provisional accreditation must be based on one or more of the following: 1) evidence that the Council failed to adhere to applicable adopted procedures; 2) evidence that, based upon the record before the Council, the decision was arbitrary and capricious or not supported by substantial evidence. Appeals must be made in writing and must be based on concrete evidence that was in the record before the Council at the time of the original decision. All expenses of the appeal, including travel, shall be paid by the institution initiating the appeal.

If an appeal is filed, while it is pending and before a decision on the appeal is made by the Council, there will be no change in the accredited status of the Journalism and Public Relations Program. The status will remain the same as currently listed following the 2016 vote (reaccredited).

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my best wishes for success for the Journalism and Public Relations Program, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Del Galloway". The signature is written in a cursive style with a diagonal slash at the end.

Del Galloway, ACEJMC President

cc

Alberto Gonzalez, Acting Director

Joe Foote, site team chair

Marie Hardin, chair, Accrediting Committee

Patricia Thompson, executive director, ACEJMC