On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 9, 2023

William F. Tate IV, President
Louisiana State University

Dear President Tate:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met April 28 in Chicago and voted 20-0 that the undergraduate program at the Manship School of Mass Communication at Louisiana State University receive reaccreditation, and voted 20-0 that the professional master's program receive reaccreditation. Josh Grimm, interim dean, attended the meeting.

The Council discussed the noncompliance on Standard 3 (Assessment of Learning Outcomes) in the master's program, but concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for reaccreditation. The next site team will pay particular attention to improvements on Standard 3.

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for success for the Manship School, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,
