

Accrediting Council

On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 9, 2023

Darryll J. Pines, President
University of Maryland

Dear President Pines:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met April 28 in Chicago and voted 15-0, with four recusals, that the undergraduate program at the Philip Merrill College of Journalism at the University of Maryland receive reaccreditation, and voted 15-0, with four recusals, that the professional master's program receive reaccreditation. Lucy Dalglish, dean, attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for reaccreditation.

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for success for the Philip Merrill College of Journalism, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Del Galloway". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "D" and a long, sweeping underline.

Del Galloway, ACEJMC President
