

Accrediting Council

On Education in Journalism and Mass Communications

May 9, 2024

Rodney Bennett, President
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Dear President Bennett:

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications met May 3, 2024, in Washington, D.C., and voted 16-0, with one recusal, that the undergraduate program in the College of Journalism and Mass Communications at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln receive reaccreditation. Dean Shari Veil attended the meeting.

The Council concurred with the site team and Committee recommendations for reaccreditation.

We will be in touch with Dr. Veil about the next visit for the school, scheduled for the 2029-2030 academic year.

Thank you for the opportunity to participate with your faculty and administrators in the assessment of your program. The goal of the Accrediting Council is to improve the quality of education offered to students served by a program through that assessment. Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for success for the College of Journalism and Mass Communications, its students, faculty and the professional media constituencies it serves.

Sincerely,
